Hanna says Dewey isn't his candidate. This will not lessen Dewey's opinion of himself, nor lessen him in the estimation of other people.

Liverpool gets the bulk of American apples shipped to Europe. That is the distributing point. As many as 100,000 barrels have been received there in a week. But large shipments are also made to other ports.

Gen. Botha, who succeeds Joubert as commander of the Boers, is 36 years old, and when not engaged in fighting follows the business of cattle and sheep raiser. He isn't particular about the cut of his garments or the style of the goods.

There has recently been a noted diminution of the number of beggars and thieves in some of the European cities. They have changed their base of operations to prey upon the unsophisticated sight-seeers at the Paris Exposition.

Gen. Otis reports that General Bates had just returned to Manila after placing troops at a number of places south of Luzon. If all these people are as friendly as they are said to be where is the need of planting so many soldiers among them?

Alabama is coming to the front. While she is a great producer of pig iron she lays claim to the largest hog in America, ten feet two and a half inches long, four and a half feet high and weighing 1,542 pounds. He is a three-year old, half native, half Berkshire.

Printing the fractional currency, "shinplasters," that were current during the war and for some time after, was a profitable business. From first to last there were $368,724,075 worth of them issued, of which nearly $7,000,000 were never presented for redemption.

Some of the newspapers are criticising Gen. Roberts' expression in his report where he says "another unfortunate occurrence has occurred." They seem to think that occurrences of this kind shouldn't occur so frequently in such short time; but if this occurrence didn't occur what did it do?

The new bridge across East river between New York and Brooklyn, will be 7,200 feet long, and 118 feet wide in the clear, provided with two foot paths each 12 feet wide, two bicycle paths each 7 feet wide, elevated railroad and trolly tracks. Why not roof the old river and be done with it?

Prof. Holden, of Maine, was so stuck on the discovery by him when a boy at school that the "earth is flat and the sun and moon do move" he provided in his will that this should be inscribed on his tombstone. That knocks out that colored Richmond parson, Jasper, for priority in discovery.

Y. M. C. A. SCHOOL.

Closing Exercises of the Spring Term Last Night at the Association.

VERY SUCCESSFUL SESSION.

Twenty-five Young Men Received Instruction During Their Spare Evenings. Rewards for General Proficiency and Regular Attendance.

The night school of the Young Men's Christian Association closed last night with very informal exercises, which, however, were made especially pleasant for a large majority of the pupils of the school who were present, having gathered and enjoyed with their principal, Mr. A. J. Howell, Jr., and members of the committee under whose auspices the institution is conducted, a very interesting and instructive social season, during the progress of which ice cream and cake were served in the school apartments of the Y. M. C. A. building.

Mr. Howell has only since Christmas taken charge of the school and the gentlemanly deportment and intelligence shown by the young men of his classes last night attest his fitness, adaptability and painstaking in and for the work which he has undertaken and which has been especially blessed under his care during the past four and a half months.

The committee from the Association, which has this work under its care, is composed of Mr. W. M. Cumming, (chairman), Mr. W. H. Sprunt and Mr. John Frank. These gathered last evening with Mr. Howell and his pupils and all made informal talks which were interesting and inspiring to the young men, who are thus seeking to fit themselves for life under circumstances which they are fortunate in being able to enjoy.

Several rewards for general proficiency in studies and regular attendance during the term were made by Mr. Cumming in well arranged words of encouragement and felicity to the successful young men. The awards were as follows:

Mr. James J. Southerland, handsome gold watch.
Mr. R. C. Sellers, set of books.
Mr. J. H. Carney, set of books.
Mr. Willie B. Muse, set of books.
Mr. W. A. McGirt, set of books.
Mr. W. L. Walker, set of books.

In making the award to Mr. Sellers, it was stated that not only had he been especially proficient in study but he had been present on every night of the term, whether for the recitation of his classes or not. Although provided as a member of the association, with tickets for the various entertainments at the Y. M. C. A., he sacrificed them all and attended the school.

The next regular term of school begins October 1st, but Mr. Howell has on his own account signified his intention of taking a few classes for a Summer term beginning Tuesday night, at which time he hopes to meet all those who desire to take the course.

GENERAL CAR INSPECTOR.

Mr. John H. Davis Has Taken New Position With the Central Railway of Georgia, at Savannah.

Mr. John H. Davis, formerly master car builder of the Atlantic Coast Line in this city, but more recently manager of the King Grocery Company, in which he purchased an interest soon after his retirement from the railroad service, has accepted the position of general inspector of cars of the Central Railway of Georgia, and will have headquarters in Savannah, for which city he will leave this evening to enter upon his duties.

It is learned that Mr. Davis' new position will be practically a control of the entire car building department of the Central Railway and is a position both responsible and lucrative. His long term of years as master car builder here has eminently qualified him for the work upon which he is about to enter and his other business capabilities and qualities will easily make him popular with and trusted by his new employers. He will not move his family just yet to Savannah and it is learned that he will still retain his interest in the King Grocery Company, for a time at least. His numerous friends in Wilmington will note with regret his decision to leave the city, but will at the same time congratulate him upon the promotion which comes in the way of his new position.

Mr. Davis has recently returned from a trip South during which time he took occasion to visit Savannah and look over the new field.

Couple from Goldsboro.

Miss Nellie May Williamson and Mr. N. R. E. Mayer, of Goldsboro, N. C., were married at Grace M. E. parsonage yesterday afternoon by Rev. J. N. Cole, D. D., the pastor. The bride was formerly from Point Pleasant, New Jersey, and the groom is farming near Goldsboro. They came down on the morning train yesterday and returned in the evening.

Fifth Biennial of G. F. W. C.

Announcement has been made that the Fifth Biennial of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs will be held in Milwaukee, Wis., June 4th to 8th, inclusive. Mrs. James Sidney Peck, president of the Biennial Local Board, has sent out neatly printed circulars descriptive of the event, and it is anticipated that the attendance will be quite large and composed of many enthusiastic delegates.

FOR GOVERNOR:

CHARLES B. A

OF WAYNE.

BOUND OVER TO COURT.

James F. Qualls, Charged With Bigamy, Sent to Jail in Default of $250 Justified Bond.

James F. Qualls, the young white man charged with bigamy, was yesterday arraigned before Justice McGowan, but upon affidavit of William J. Bellamy, Esq., the defendant's counsel, the case was removed to Dr. W. W. Harriss, justice of the peace, and was heard in the county court room, a large crowd being in attendance.

S. M. Godfrey, of Burlington, who married a sister of Qualls' first wife, was present and testified to the marriage of the defendant to wife No. 1 at Burlington on December 23rd, 1894, he having been present and witnessed the marriage certificate. W. G. Stinson, of Delgado village, but formerly of Burlington, testified to the same material facts. Godfrey said that Qualls' first wife is still living and that Qualls visited his former home last Christmas and was fully cognizant of the situation.

An especially strong defence was made by Mr. Bellamy for his client and at frequent intervals in the hearing points of law as to the admissibility of certain evidence were hotly argued.

L. V. Grady, Esq., represented the plaintiff. Mr. A. D. Edwards the father of the second wife, who was present and testified as to her union with Qualls in Halifax county, January 28th last. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards testified that the daughter married without their consent and consequently they did not witness the ceremony, but Qualls and his second wife had lived together until the time of defendant's arrest. After argument of the law and facts in the case by the attorneys, Justice Harriss reserved his decision until 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when he announced as his opinion that there is probable cause and Qualls was committed to jail in default of $250 justified bond for his appearance at the New Hanover term of Criminal Court, June 4th.

Tickets are good on all trains, but on Wednesday, April 18th, a special train will be run, leaving Wilmington at 7.40 A. M. and arriving at Newbern at 10.45 A. M. Returning the train leaves Newbern at 4.50 P. M. and arrives at Wilmington at 8 P. M.

Other rates for round trip tickets and admission into the Fair grounds are Scott's Hill, $3.15; Hampstead, $2.95; Woodside, $2.80; Edgecombe, $2.65; Verona, $2.00; Jacksonville, $1.80; North East, $1.60; White Oak, $1.40; Maysville, $1.25; Pollocksville, $1.00. The special train will arrive at Scott's Hill, 8.10 A. M.; Woodside, 8.28; Verona, 9.08; Jacksonville, 9.20; Maysville, 9.55; Pollocksville, 10.09; Newbern, 10.45.

Returning Delegates.

Messrs. S. P. McNair, J. W. Jackson and Marsden Bellamy, Esq., were the members of the New Hanover delegation who returned from the State Convention yesterday morning. Last evening the returning delegates were Messrs. G. Herbert Smith, J. Allen Taylor, C. W. Worth, E. K. Bryan, Esq., and Capt. W. R. Kenan. Other attendants upon the convention, who returned were George Rountree, Esq., Col. W. J. Woodward, Mr. Frank H. Stedman, Capt. George L. Morton and Iredell Meares, Esq.

First Ripe Strawberries.

Capt. D. J. Black, the enterprising produce commission merchant on Princess street, had the first ripe strawberries of the season yesterday. They were grown by Mr. J. A. Murphy, of Atkinson, Pender county, who was a welcome visitor at the STAR office yesterday. Notwithstanding the lateness of the crop by reason of the cold weather, Mr. Murphy says he expects to begin shipping early next week.

"Convention Echoes."

At the Sabbath afternoon service at the Y. M. C. A. next Sunday President W. L. Latta, Secretary Turner and Mr. Robert E. VanLaer will speak on impressions received at the State Convention at Greensboro last week. It is proposed to make the occasion both interesting and instructive.

UNUSUALLY STRONG ONE.

Representative Bellamy's Opinion of the State Ticket Nominated by the Democrats at Raleigh.

[Special Star Telegram.]

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Representative Bellamy, when asked to day to give his views on the recent Democratic State ticket nominated at Raleigh, gave out the following: "I have just heard of the report of the convention, except as to a few positions not yet selected. It has displayed great wisdom. The candidates chosen are very strong and popular. Our candidate for Governor is a man of splendid sense and fine education, and is to day the best speaker on the hustings in the State. He will excite enthusiasm in the canvass, and will fill the chair with much credit to our State. Our candidate for Lieutenant Governor, W. D. Turner, is not only a good man, but is one of the best legislators with whom I ever served—able, conservative and fair. Bryan Grimes, the nominee for Secretary of State, is a fine selection—among the number of able candidates. He is not only a very sensible man, but one of the ablest and best of the State. General Toon, selected for Superintendent of Public Instruction, is a fine scholar and good educator, and my opinion is that the convention could hardly have made a better selection. It goes without saying that Ben Lacy's nomination is a very just compliment to a deserving man. His nomination is a popular one among the laboring men.

"The ticket is an unusually strong one. In fact, one of the best ever presented by the party. They deserve an overwhelming majority, and will carry the State by an unprecedentedly large vote."

STATE CONVENTION.

McNeill and Turner Nominated by Acclamation for Corporation Commissioners.

THE ELECTORS AT LARGE.

Delegates to the National Convention Appointed--The Platform Adopted—Adjournment—The State Election Board—County Boards.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., April 12.—The nomination by the State Convention this morning of Franklin McNeill and Samuel L. Rogers as Corporation Commissioners was by acclamation. All other candidates before the convention withdrew before the vote was taken. McNeill was put in nomination by Judge Connor and Rogers by J. Frank Ray, of Macon.

For Electors at Large Dan Hugh McLean, of Harnett, and Lee S. Overman, of Rowan, were selected by acclamation; all the other names suggested being withdrawn.

For delegates at large and alternates, the following names were chosen by roll call: Edward J. Hale, of Cumberland; Julian S. Carr, of Durham; Walter E. Moore, of Jackson; Thos. A. Jones, of Buncombe. For alternates: Theo. F. Kluttz, of Rowan; W. S. Chadwick, of Carteret; B. F. Aycock, of Wilson; J. G. Hackett, of Wilkes.

Members of the State Executive Committee and delegates to the National Convention recommended by the various districts were accepted by the convention.

This being done, the platform (as presented in to-day's STAR) was adopted and the convention adjourned.

State Election Board.

The State Election Board held a meeting at the Yarborough to-day and appointed an election board for every county in the State, as provided by law. The resignation of W. B. Pollard, of Forsyth, who on account of ill health has never been able to attend a meeting of the board, was accepted, and to fill the vacancy, E. H. Johnson, also of Forsyth, was chosen and immediately qualified. All the members of the board were present, but Robt. D. Gilmer on account of his being a candidate for a State office was excused from taking part in the deliberations of the board. At its next session, the first Monday in July, he will resign and his successor be elected.

The County Boards.

In selecting the members of the county boards no rule was followed except that prescribed by law, viz: that they shall be "discreet men." In some counties all these are Democrats. In others, there are two Democrats and one Republican or Populist. But in no county have the fusionists a majority on the board. In making up the list the wishes of Democrats of the county were consulted. Where an entirely Democratic board was asked it was given, but where it was deemed best that the other side be given minority representation a Republican or Populist was put on with two Democrats. The list as finally agreed upon is (in part) as follows: New Hanover—Martin Newman, E. K. Bryan, F. A. Montgomery. Onslow—M. M. Capps, G. H. Simmons, J. A. Pittman. Pender—W. W. Miller, W. M. Hand, J. F. Moore. Pitt—Leonard Fleming, F. C. Harding, Jesse Cannon. Richmond—H. S. Ledbetter, W. T. Crosland, Alfred Baldwin. Robeson—Frank Gough, A. C. Oliver, G. H. Hall. Duplin—Dr. J. M. Faison, G. W. Carroll, S. A. Middleton. Edgecombe—W. H. Powell, Jr., of Tarboro; Elias Carr, Jr., of Old Spart; L. V. Bassett of Rocky Mount. Anson—Crawford D. Bennett, of Wadesboro; Jas. T. Henley, of Wadesboro; C. B. Lindsey, of Lilesville. Brunswick—A. P. Thomas of Calabash, J. D. Galloway of Southport, G. H. Bellamy of Elpaso. Bladen—B. B. Cromartie of Elizabethtown, J. D. Beatty, K. B. Council of Council's station. Columbus—Wade Wishart of Whiteville, D. S. Cowan of Robeson, W. E. Thigpen of Chadbourn. Craven—W. D. McIver of Newbern, C. E. Troy, S. H. Lane. Cumberland—J. B. Market Street Paving.

A force of street laborers was yesterday engaged in tearing up the cobble stones from the gutters on Market between Front and Water streets, upon which section it is expected that the paving with vitrified brick will commence as early as next week. The terra cotta piping for the new drains is already on the ground and will probably be laid this week. The beginning of the work on Market street appears to indicate that this thoroughfare will be improved before the Princess street paving is begun.

Good Friday.

To-day (Good Friday) will be observed as usual in Wilmington. Several of the churches will have appropriate services and a number of the business houses will close for the day. The banks, Produce Exchange, and a number of other institutions will suspend operations for the day.

The Morning Star.

BY WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 13, 1900.

AFRAID TO TOUCH IT.

Early in the present session of Congress, Representative Bellamy, of this district, introduced a bill for the repeal of the tariff duties on wood pulp and other paper-making material. Following this up the National Publishers' Association, and several other publishers' associations passed resolutions demanding such modification of the tariff as would relieve them from the extortions of the paper Trust; but Congress hasn't touched it, hasn't dared to touch it.

A couple weeks ago Congressman Payne introduced a resolution asking the Secretary of the Treasury for a statement as to the prospective surplus in the Treasury at the end of the present fiscal year. It was said at the time that the object of this inquiry was to ascertain the practicability of reducing the war taxes and repealing such of them as were least popular. But Congress hasn't touched it or made any move to reduce taxation. In matters of this kind when the Republican statesmen are in doubt they go to Senator Allison for advice because as chairman of the Senate Finance Committee he is supposed to be more than ordinarily well informed on financial matters, and in addition to that is regarded as a very cool and sagacious counsellor. It is said that he has advised against touching the war tax or tariff question because it might lead to a debate that would keep Congress in session till late in the summer, which they don't want, and it would lead to a bad mix on the tariff for while they might please some by reducing duties they would displease others who failed to secure the reduction which they desired, and also displease others who profit by such taxes and are therefore opposed to any reduction.

Referring to this inaction and the various reasons assigned for it, the New York Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin, a non-political journal, as its name implies, says:

"Whether this be good politics or not, it is certainly bad business. The surplus revenue this fiscal year will be $75,000,000. There is no country on earth except the United States where such a result would not be the most disastrous indictment that could be drawn against an administration; a moderate deficit that could be bridged by a temporary loan would not subject the administration to one-tenth part of the criticism. And this European view is substantially correct. No more money ought to be taken from the tax payers than is actually necessary to carry on the Government, and an administration that takes $75,000,000 too much is a great deal worse than one that takes five or ten millions too little; the deficiency can be supplied immediately by a loan and ultimately by increased revenue, but a surplus cannot be returned to the taxpayers; the nearest approach to it would be the purchase of bonds, but we are now in process of replacing all the bonds that mature soon with bonds that will not mature for thirty years. The reason that a surplus is looked at differently here from what it is in Europe is that for many years our national taxes have come from imports, spirits, beer and tobacco. For various reasons the greater part of the people desire to have high taxes on these; they approve of the taxes for their own sake; the tax is not simply a means of supplying revenue, but it is a means of making foreign goods, beer, spirits and tobacco expensive. The present situation is very different. We are taxing medicines and all sorts of proprietary articles, almost every sort of business document, and many occupations. No one pretends that these taxes are in the interest of anybody; they promote neither home industry nor the drinking of ice water. The business community, the population generally, desire to get rid of them at the earliest possible moment. The political leaders who desire to put off a reduction of taxes till after the Presidential election are short-sighted; if the majority party does not reduce taxes it will find the attacks of the opposition during the campaign far more embarrassing than it would be to decide now what taxes to remove.

"The present revenue threatens a monetary stringency in the autumn, and it is a powerful incentive to extravagance. Its reduction is important to general business and to the convenience of the people who pay the taxes."

Unnecessary taxation is unjust and indefensible taxation. It is levying offensive tribute upon the toil and sweat of a people who have burdens enough to bear, and takes the money from them to be hoarded in the Government vaults to be squandered, for surpluses invite squandering. The Republican statesmen have always boasted of their capacity for getting away with surpluses and their achievements justify the boast. They have always contended that it is easier to manage a surplus than a deficit. As an illustration of this there are extraordinary demands upon the Treasury now, many of which would never be heard of if the surplus didn't tempt in that direction. If there was no surplus there isn't the slightest probability that Hanna and other ship subsidy schemers would be demanding an annual $9,000,000 pull on the Treasury under the pretence of building up an American merchant marine, and we wouldn't hear of the multitude of propositions that have already been introduced in Congress to increase pensions. They will always find ways to get rid of surpluses, and hence as they say it is much easier to manage a surplus than a deficit.

This taxing for a surplus is reprehensible at all times because it is unjust to the taxpayers, most of whom have to toil hard for the taxes taken from them, but it is especially reprehensible when it hoards in Government vaults money that is needed in the business of the country, especially in some sections where at certain seasons a much larger volume of money is needed than ordinarily. We all know how when the crop-moving seasons come the West and the South suffer for currency "to move the crops," and how difficult they find it even with such assistance as they can get from Washington and from Eastern banks to secure the amount of money they need, and that they sometimes sustain very heavy loss while waiting for the needed currency to keep the crop movement going.

According to the estimates made there will be by the end of the fiscal year $75,000,000 locked up in the Treasury vaults, for every dollar of which the business of the country will have use. The sum and substance of that kind of financiering is that the Treasury will be that much richer in funds, for which it has no use, and the people that much poorer in being deprived of that much money, for which they have use. That kind of taxation, as an experiment, when it was questionable what it might yield, might be defended, but persisted in when the result is an enormous, useless surplus, is simply robbery. For political reasons they will not now undertake to give the people relief; maybe later they will, for political reasons, wish they had.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic convention which met at Raleigh Wednesday was one of the largest and most thoroughly representative conventions ever held in this State, and while there was more or less of animated contest between the friends of respective opposing candidates, it was conducted in a friendly, chivalrous manner, and the proceedings were marked by a spirit of harmony that augurs well for the harmony and solidity of the party in the approaching election.

It had been apparent for some time that Charles B. Aycock would have no opposition for the nomination for Governor, and consequently his nomination by acclamation was anticipated, and is accepted as a fitting recognition not only of the ability of this distinguished gentleman, but of his loyal devotion to the principles of Democracy and of his eminent services in every contest in which his party has been engaged.

In the prime of life, bold and brilliant, he is a typical and stalwart representative of stalwart Democracy, and as its standard bearer and Governor of the State he will do the party and the State honor.

Good judgment guided the selection of the other candidates, for they are all men who stand well as men and Democrats in their respective sections and throughout the State as far as known, while there was a judicious distribution of the offices—the east, the center and the west being all represented.

As far as the ticket is concerned the convention has done well, and it now remains for the people to ratify these nominations by rolling up overwhelming majority for it.

The platfarm will meet with the hearty endorsement not only of the Democracy of the State, but of thousands of voters who have not as a rule been voting with the Democratic party, but who patriotically desire the peace, prosperity and happiness of the State and the betterment of the condition of all her people. All such can stand on that platform.

Now that the Convention, the representative body of the white people of North Carolina, has spoken, let the banners be unfurled, the friends of honest government and white supremacy fall into line, and march shoulder to shoulder under their chosen leaders, until North Carolina is thoroughly redeemed and white supremacy permanently established.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents; guaranteed at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store. †

ONLY NINE AGAINST IT.

As anticipated by those who know the power of the whip in the Republican party the Porto Rican bill, as agreed upon by the conference committees, passed the House of Representatives Wednesday with only nine Republican votes against it—nine out of one hundred and eighty-five. The bill passed the Senate with only six Republican votes against it—six out of fifty-three.

The remarkable thing about this vote is that many of these Representatives and Senators were known to be opposed at least to the tariff feature of this bill and confessed that they voted for it at the solicitation of the President, who himself had been whipped into its support after having declared over his signature that it was the "plain duty" of Congress to give Porto Rico free trade with the United States.

Another remarkable thing about this vote is that it should have been so cast in spite of the unprecedented protest against the shameful breach of faith by so many leading Republican papers, and by so many thousands of Republicans who have stood by the party in all its contests and stood by the Republican Representatives in Congress in all their party measures. The men who cast these votes knew of these protests, they read them day after day in the public press, they read these utterances of the people in their public meetings, and yet in defiance of these oft reiterated and wide-spread protests, they filed in under the whip of the leaders, who had gone so far that they couldn't well recede, and voted for a measure which many of them condemned and which they knew their constituents condemned. There never has been within our reading such an utter ignoring of public sentiment nor such an abject submission to the party whip. The nine Republican Representatives and the six Senators who refused to obey the whip stand illustrious in their manly courage, and in their adherence to the principles they professed.

To the honor of the Democrats in both Houses, they, with but few exceptions, voted solidly against this infamy and for maintaining the pledges and the honor of the country.

The Republicans under the whip and spur have made the issue and the record, and must stand upon it when they face an indignant people and outraged pulic sentiment.

Viewing it simply from a political standpoint we are heartily glad they have thus gone upon record, for when they did they drove another nail into the coffin and elinched it.

When the committee from Chicago had seen Admiral Dewey and arranged about his visit to Chicago, they called on Mr. McKinley, who said he was glad the Admiral was going, adding: "He is a great sea fighter. He tells me I made him." Now, if Dewey ever had any doubt who his creator was, he knows. Hanna made McKinley, McKinley made Dewey. Who comes next in the creative order? Maybe Teddy Roosevelt.

Chestnut Ridge, Yadkin county, is the proud possessor of the smallest baby girl recorded in that territory. She put in an appearance on St. Patrick's day, and after being dressed for reception weighed one pound and ten ounces. Her parents are no midgets, her father weighing 150 pounds and her mother 125. At last accounts the young miss was flourishing.

When Editor New of Indiana remarked that Mark Hanna is "a d—d liar" he forgot his Sunday school training, but all the Indiana folk understood him and a majority of them might have responded 'them's my sentiments." It wasn't a new discovery.

—— The personal candidacy of Admiral Dewey has fallen flat. No Democratic response has come. The party as on organization is bound to Colonel Bryan. Its masses follow him. In the Republican party the minute number who voted for President McKinley in 1896 and who opposed to him now on the expansion issue cannot accept Dewey. He won the Philippines. He has presistently urged their annexation. He signed the Schurman report, which sustained as a whole and in detail the entire policy of the Administration in the Philippines. Every Republican in the Republican party save these few expansionists—so few that they cannot affect the issue in any State, county, city or ward—is for President McKinley first, last and at all times.—Philadelphia Press, Rep.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Goldsboro Headlight: The death of Mr. Robert W. Taylor occurred at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. M. Powell, Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock, after a brief illness, aged 71 years.

— Newbern Journal: It is with sincere sorrow that the announcement is made of the death of Herbert Biddle Duffy which occurred at his home early Thursday morning at five minutes past twelve.

— Laurinburg Exchange: Mrs. D. H. Meachum, of this town, died Saturday morning. —— Miss Margaret McCormick, a highly esteemed old lady of this neighborhood, died a few days ago at the home of her brother, Mr. Nathan McCormick, at the ripe age of 80 years.

— Warrenton Record: The Populist executive committee for the county held a meeting here last Monday and decided not to put out a county ticket if the Democratic ticket was satisfactory. The majority of the committee, so we have been told, are in favor of the constitutional amendment, and will vote for it and work for its adoption.

— Winston Sentinel: A big fire swept over a portion of the country just south of Salisbury Sunday evening. Something like a thousand acres of ground was burned over. Persons living in the burned territory saved their property by burning around their buildings before the fire reached them. So far as learned only one barn was burned.

— Salisbury Index: J. T. Wyatt, C. C. Wyatt and Mr. Cauble, have just discovered a large vein of gold and copper ore on Mr. Cauble's land near the old Oddie mine about six miles from Salisbury. They commenced sinking a shaft down on the vein this morning. It promises to be a good mine and shows up well.

— Lexington Dispatch: Revenue officers made a rich discovery in Boon township last Thursday. They visited Mr. W. D. Simerson's distillery, but much to their disappointment found everything "as the government would have it." After leaving the still they made a search through the adjacent territory and found eight or nine barrels of whiskey, containing over 400 gallons, hid out in an old pine field over a mile from Mr. Simerson's place of business. They seized the "stuff," of course. Its ownership is unknown.

—— A five year old son of Mr. Ransom Hinkle was so badly burned last week as to cause its death. Mr. Hinkle is a farmer and lives a few miles from Lexington. Last Tuesday morning he burned a lot of corn stalks in an old field. He left the fire for a few moments and the little tot was playing near by. In some manner its clothes caught and it was so badly burned before the flames could be extinguished that it died on last Thursday.

CURRENT COMMENT.

— The Erie Dispatch says that "it was the Republican Aministration that made all there is of Dewey." Yet there are millions of perverse Americans who will persist in believing that Dewey aided materially in making all there is of the Republican Administration.—Philadelphia Record, Dem.

—— There is a probability that the Grand Army of the Republic of Illinois will invite Admiral Dewey, as a presidential candidate, to attend the state encampment to be held in August. Information of this sort will be apt to give the administration just a faint thrill of a chill down the spine. Should the G. A. R. take a liking to the Admiral as presidential timber, it might make a good deal of difference in his prospects.—Savannah News, Dem.

—— Gen. Otis has not been recalled too soon. We understand, of course, that, in the polite phraseology of official life, he is reluctantly permitted to return to the United States. But the fact of importance is that he is about to leave Manila, and we hasten to put on record our grateful acceptance of the new arrangement. If we have, at this happy moment, a word to say, it must be to the effect that Gen. Otis might well have been "permitted" to come home twelve months ago.—Washington Post, Ind.

"Have you steady employment now, Billy?"

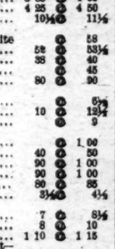
The shock and strain of being fired from a cannon daily through a circus season, would seem to be extraordinary. But it is not nearly so wearing upon the average woman's nervous system, as the strain and drain of the every day life of the married woman. It is not the great shock of the storm which wears the stone but the "continual dropping." So in woman's life it is not the great demands upon her energy which wear her out, but the interminable leakage of her strength through the diseases that affect the delicate womanly organs.

To stop this ceaseless leakage of strength is as much the desire as the duty of women. It can be done once and for all by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is not a cure-all but it is specially designed for a specific purpose, the cure of the chronic diseases peculiar to women. It dries up the drains, allays inflammations, heals the ulcerations and cures the displacements which are at the bottom of woman's miseries.



There is neither opium, cocaine or other narcotic contained in "Favorite Prescription."

"For five years my wife was in an almost helpless condition, suffering from female weakness," writes J. S. Everitt, Esq., of Hagerman, Washington Co., Fla. "Last September I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. She took several bottles of the medicine and gave birth to a ten pound son on January 31st, 1898. She is now sound and well and doing her housework."

Building His Own Tomb.

The tombs which Americans build for themselves, and that frequently during their lifetime, are daily becoming more remarkable for the display of the owner's wealth. For many years the tomb of the late Jay Gould was the finest in the famous cemetery of Woodlawn, Brooklyn, and cost $50,000, having for a long time the record of being the most costly burial place in the country.

Now Senator William Clark of Montana is having a tomb built for himself, the cost of which will be no less than $150,000. It is 30 feet by 44 feet at the base, and is composed chiefly of white granite. The steps are cut in one piece, the first instance of American work of that kind, and the pediment consists of a single piece of granite weighing 31 tons, the ridgestone weighs 28 tons and the buttresses 14 tons each. The interior is brightened by a white Tuscan marble altar, placed on the tessellated floor, and is inlaid with green marble and gold colored glass in mosaic.

A Mother's Duty is to see to it that her children begin early in life to shampoo their heads regularly once a week. In each instance, after the hair is thoroughly dry, some mild, health-giving tonic should be applied to the scalp to aid nature in creating the best possible growth of uniformly colored, lustrous, healthy hair—the most important feature in the make-up of beautiful women and handsome men. For more than fifteen years, the has stood at the apex of all shampoo washes, while the "HAIR GROWER" has been equally successful in its efforts to return the injured scalp and almost lifeless hair to their original healthfulness.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, April 12 —Speculation in cotton futures was not active today. An unusual array of bullish factors confronted the trade this morning, but the result was disappointing. The market, after opening two to five points higher and increasing the advance one to three points on the more active positions, became easier. The failure of the market to respond fully to the very steady closing of the English market with crop accounts more bullish and Southern spot holders firmer, led to a disposition to realize on local long contracts, if not to take the short side of the account. The latter course was pursued in a conservative way by a few of the principal bear houses, and prices gave way four to seven points from the best figures of the forenoon, after which trading was slow. The double holiday led to some trading for the purpose of evening-up accounts. The weekly Liverpool statistical statement was exceptionally strong, port and interior receipts very light, but the market dragged most of the day. The close was barely steady, with prices six points higher to three points net lower. Short selling in the distant months caused relative weakness in those options.

NEW YORK, April 12.—Cotton quiet; middling uplands 9 13-16c.

Cotton futures closed barely steady: April and May 9.48, June 9.41, July 9.39, August 9.23, September 8.41, October 8.11, November and December 7.96, January 7.97, February 7.99, March 8.01.

Dr. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION FOR WEAK WOMEN.

TOILET HINTS.

Care of the Complexion and Hands in Winter.

It is very important, especially in the winter time, that the skin should be thoroughly dried after the hands or face has been washed. A soft, dry towel should be used and every trace of moisture removed. Otherwise chapping, roughness and redness are almost sure to ensue.

After walking or driving in an open carriage and always before going to bed the face should be thoroughly washed with warm water to remove all dust. To retire at night with the complexion covered with powder and atmospheric impurities is a practice which greatly impairs beauty. The French are fond of saying that one need not be beautiful, but one must not be ugly. To take care of the teeth, skin and hair, to dress neatly and becomingly and to cultivate so kindly and cheerful a disposition that its reflection softens and brightens the countenance will effectually prevent any woman from being ugly, even if she has not a good feature in her face.

The illustration shows a coat of mastic cloth, close at the back and half loose in front. It is trimmed with bands of black velvet, which are arranged so that they follow the rounded outline of the coat. Horizontal bands of velvet cover the sleeves. The collar and double revers are of black astrakhan. A black satin skirt is worn, a white mousseline cravat and a hat of black velvet trimmed with white feathers.

ORNAMENTS.

Trimmings and Jewelry For the Winter Season.

Louis Quinze knots continue to be a favorite motive in dress decoration. They are incrusted in velvet on cloth or applied in beads on tulle, and they appear in embroidery of all kinds, forming designs about the edge of tunics.

A great deal of jewelry is worn with gowns of almost every sort, but especially with evening costumes. Brooches, barrettes, buckles and clasps are seen, and pins representing flowers, birds, beetles, butterflies, etc. They are used in the drapery of the bodice, at the belt, in the cravat, in the hair and upon millinery.

One of the prettiest of hat or hair ornaments is composed of small peacock plumes, the eye of the plume being set with jewels. Peacock eyes are also combined with other feathers very effectively. Butterflies of lace and spangles are also worn in the hair with evening dress.

Black velvet belts, now fashionably adopted, are very narrow, except where the buckle is attached. At that point they widen somewhat.

The morning blouse shown in the picture is of surah. It has a wide collar edged with a band of embroidery and a ruffle of lace, which continues down the front in a double jabot and around the waist. In front the blouse ties with two long ends, also embroidered and bordered with a lace ruffle. The petticoat of broche silk has two circular ruffles of plain silk edged and headed with silk ruches.

Slanders.

"Never waste time in denying slanders," said the corn fed philosopher. "Start a new slander about some one else, and yours will be forgotten."—Indianapolis Journal.

Mother and Son at the Zoo.

I once watched a monkey, which had a baby in arms, being fed with grapes. The youngster was most anxious to have a grape, but his mother, being either too selfish to allow him to share her treat or afraid the fruit might not be good for her son's juvenile digestive organs, would not allow him to have any and boxed his ears soundly for being rude enough to attempt to take a grape out of her mouth. The keeper in charge said she did not "spare the rod and spoil the child" when he became "obstreperous."

As his parent would not give him any fruit, the little fellow endeavored to obtain some on his own account and several times escaped from her arms and began to climb the wire netting in the front of his cage, but was promptly hauled back by the tail. At length he managed to get free, and, running up to the top of his cage, put one hand through the meshes of the galvanized wire and pleaded eloquently with his upturned dark little eyes for a "taster," while his mother actually bit herself in sheer rage over naughty boy's bad behavior.—Cassell's "Little Folks."

His Worst.

She—Have you ever acted in private theatricals?

He—No, the worst disgrace that ever happened to me was getting arrested for staying up all night and working a tick tack on a deaf man's door.—Chicago Times-Herald.

CLOCKS OF BYGONE DAYS.

Curiosities In the Museum of a Clock Making Village.

In the town of Schramberg in the Black Forest district of Wurttemberg, Germany, where one of the chief industries is clock making, there has recently been established an interesting museum of timepieces. The collection displays the gradual development in the making of clocks for many centuries.

Among the curiosites are many of great historical value. There is an alarm clock constructed in the year 1680 for the use of travelers. In form it resembles a lantern and the interior is designed to hold a lighted candle. The candle is slowly pushed forward by a spring, which also controls the mechanism of the clock. A little pair of shears clip the wick of the candle automatically every minute to regulate its light. The lantern is inclosed with movable slides, so that the sleeper is not at first disturbed by the presence of light.

The alarm is set by inserting a peg in the second dial plate. When the required hour arrives, the alarm is sounded and at the same time the movable slides fall, flooding the room with light.

Among the curiosities is a Japanese saw clock. The clock itself produces the motive power by descending a saw formed strip of metal, the teeth of which operate the wheel of the clockwork. In another Japanese clock the hand is attached to a weight, which sinks once in 24 hours. The time is indicated by a hand on the perpendicular scale.—Chicago Times-Herald.

SHE RAISED THEM.

A Georgia Widow's Recipe For Bringing Up Her Sons.

During a visit to the army camp in Savannah General Joseph Wheeler was entertained by a party of northern men at the De Soto. When, in the good humor of after dinner cigars, one of the men said laughingly:

"How is it, general, that the sleepy farms of the south produce such whirlwind fighters in such small packages?"

"Well, gentlemen," said the little general, puffing at a large man's cigar, "I believe I'll have to give you the answer an old 'cracker' woman once gave me when I asked her a similar question. Not many years ago I had occasion to make a saddle journey through the pine barrens of Georgia, where most everybody is a 'cracker' and mighty shiftless. One day, however, I rode into a little community that showed such signs of thrift as to be quite out of keeping with the general character of the barrens, I do assure you, gentlemen. I rode up to a cabin where a gaunt old woman stood in the doorway, and asked her who owned these little farms that were so well kept.

"'That farm on the left belongs to my son Jabez,' said she, 'and the next one to my boy Zalim, and the next to my lad Jason, and the next is my boy Potiphar's place, and'—

"'Hold on, sister, said I. 'How did you manage to raise such a fine lot of boys way off here in the woods?'

"'Waal, stranger,' she answered, 'I am a widdy woman, and all I had to raise 'em on was prayer and hickory, but I raised 'em powerful frequent.'"—Philadelphia Post.

Strategy.

Wife—Dear me! How are we ever to get through this crowd? We'll miss the train.

Husband—Raise your umbrella and walk ahead. I'll follow.—Catholic Standard and Times.

To His Credit.

"That young Perkins who comes to see you owes $40 at the laundry and $15 at the barber shop."

"Well, papa, he deserves credit for trying to look like a gentleman."—Chicago Record.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 13, 1900.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE SENATE AND HOUSE.

Quay Case Discussed—Spooner's Boer Resolution—Senator Jones Replies to Statement by Dollivar.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—An effort was made in the Senate to-day by Mr. Morgan to displace the present unfinished business—the Spooner Philippine bill—by the substitution in its stead of the Nicaragua Canal bill. While Senator Morgan's motion failed—15 to 35—the Philippine measure had a narrow escape from being displaced by the Alaskan civil code bill, on motion of Mr. Carter, the motion being defeated on a roll call—22 to 24.

The feature of the day's proceedings was an exhaustive discussion of the Quay case by Mr. Burrows, of Michigan.

The Senate will not be in session Good Friday, adjourning over until Saturday.

The report upon the Legislative, Executive and Judicial bill was agreed to.

Mr. Jones, Arkansas, chairman of the Democratic national committee, under a question of personal privilege, replied to a statement in Mr. Dollivar's speech in the House yesterday in which the Iowan, referring to a proposed amendment that had been offered by Senator Jones to return the proceeds of the present Porto Rican customs to those who paid them said the passage of this amendment would have given the American Sugar Refining Company $1,800,000, which they have already paid in cash into the United States treasury on imported sugar.

Mr. Dollivar had accused Mr. Jones of "being in the same conspiracy."

Mr. Jones, replying, said he had never looked to see who had paid these revenues nor where the money would go; that men more familiar with the Sugar Trust's doings knew more than he did as to what the trust had paid into the treasury, and his amendment was as a matter of justice to all.

Mr. Burrows spoke. He maintained that the Governor clearly had no constitutional authority to appoint Mr. Quay or any one else to the Senate; that this point was decided in the Corbett case two years ago, and the cases were identical, save as to the parties. Senator Penrose, at that time, he said, voted against Mr. Corbett and Mr. Quay was paired against him. He predicted that the establishment of the minority doctrine would have as a sequence a popular uprising to lodge all control of senatorial elections with the sovereign people.

The Spooner bill, as the unfinished business, was laid before the Senate, and Mr. Morgan moved consideration of the Nicaragua canal bill. If carried this would have displaced the Spooner bill as unfinished business The motion was lost—15 to 33.

Senator Carter moved to take up the Alaskan code bill. Defeated 22 to 24. The senior Senator from South Dakota then spoke on his Boer resolution, which he was unable to get before the Senate. He said it was well understood the administration favored the British cause and the Senate should stand by a nation struggling for liberty.

At 4.50 P. M. the Senate adjourned.

House of Representatives.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The House to-day after a spirited debate adopted the resolution reported from the Insular Affairs Committee to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to designate depositories in Porto Rico, Cuba, and the Philippines for the deposit of government funds. By the terms of the resolution it only applies to Cuba, so long as the island shall be occupied by the United States.

An amendment to include the Philippines in this provision, offered, as stated, to emphasize the desire of the opposition not to retain the islands, was defeated by a party vote.

The conference report on the Legislative, Executive and Judicial appropriation bill was adopted and the bill goes to the President.

A Senate bill, which will permit the dependent mothers of soldiers or sailors of the Spanish war, even though they married Confederate soldiers, to receive the benefit of the general pension law, was passed.

The remainder of the day was devoted to debate, without action, upon a resolution from the Committee on Election of President, Vice President and Representatives in Congress, for a constitutional amendment empowering the Legislatures of the States to decide whether United States Senators shall be elected by the Legislatures or directly by the people. A sub-resolution was offered by the minority of the committee which differed from the majority resolution in giving the States no option, but providing that in all States the people should vote directly for U. S. Senators.

During an hour's debate on the depository resolution, Mr. Jones, Virginia, offered an amendment making the act apply only to the Philippines and Cuba so long as they should be occupied by the United States. Even if his amendment was adopted, Mr. Jones said, he would be opposed to the bill in toto. He said there was sufficient reason to call the bill the "Standard Oil bill."

The Jones amendment was lost—121 to 125.

An amendment offered by Mr. Levy, of New York, to deduct 25 per cent. of Cuba's customs revenues to create a fund to repay the United States for moneys spent in Cuba's behalf, was ruled out on a point of order.

The bill was passed—133 to 120.

The Senate amendment to the District of Columbia Appropriation bill was non-concurred in, and the bill sent to conference.

At 5.20 P. M. the House adjourned.

STRIKE ORDERED ON THE SOUTHERN

All the Railroad Telegraphers on the System Called Out by President Powell.

THE CAUSE OF THE STRIKE.

Alleged Grievances of Employes—Railroad Officials Refused to Listen to Appeals or Submit Complaints to Arbitration.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ATLANTA, April 12.—A strike of telegraphers and other station employes of the Southern Railway went into effect at 11 o'clock this morning.

After a strike had been determined upon and the preliminaries had been arranged, a few minutes before 11 o'clock, President Powell sent the following wire message to all the telegraphers on the Southern Railway system, extending from Alexandria, Va., to Meridian, Miss.:

"Atlanta, Ga., April 12, 1900.—To all telegraphers, employed on the Southern Railway—Turn your board red and quit work at 11 o'clock to-day, Thursday, April 12th. Perform no service of any kind. Stand firm and victory is ours.

[Signed] "W. V. POWELL,
"President Order of Railroad Telegraphers."

Responses to this began coming into the headquarters of the telegraphers at 624 Kimball House rapidly, stating what action had been taken by the operators on the different divisions. A force of clerks at the same time was busily engaged mailing a circular statement, officially signed by President Powell, calling upon the telegraphers to quit their work and unite in a determined effort to bring about a successful conclusion of the strike.

Telegraphers' Grievances.

The statement contains the grievances of the telegraphers. It says:

"In accordance with the constitution of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, I hereby approve a strike on the lines of the Southern and Alabama Great Southern Railways, effective 11 A. M., April 12th, 1900. All efforts to effect an amicable settlement of the difficulties having failed.

"The strike is on. Six hundred and eighty-five telegraphers and other station employes voted in favor and 131 against.

"Many non-union members will stand by the order.

"The telegraphers, dispatchers and station employes of the Southern and Alabama Great Southern Railways are determined to make a united stand against industrial oppression.

"The strike was called for the following purposes: To secure reinstatement of its members who were discharged by the Southern Railway.

"For the right to be heard through committees in the adjustment of individual grievances.

"For a set of rules and rates of pay to govern train dispatchers', telegraphers, agents and other station employes in their employment, discipline, etc.

"Twelve consecutive hours work per day where one or two telegraphers are employed, including one consecutive hour for dinner; ten consecutive hours, including meal hour, in all relay, dispatchers' office and offices where more than two telegraphers are employed, except that this rule will not make working hours more than those that may now be effective.

"Eight consecutive hours for train dispatchers.

"Pay for over-time for telegraphers, dispatchers and others in excess of the above hours, but nothing less than twenty-five cents per hour.

"To abolish the practice of compelling agents to load cotton and the performance of other menial labor.

"A minimum wage scale of $45 and $50 per month, according to territory or location.

"One hundred and twenty dollars per month for trick dispatchers.

"The securement of fair and equitable rules regarding promotion."

Causes for the Strike.

Regarding the causes leading up to the present strike, President Powell said to-day:

"This action was made necessary by the refusal of the company to treat with its employes in the telegraph department. Instead of treating with the men the company waged an outrageous secret warfare on the telegraphers, discharging the men who dared to represent their brother operators by serving on committees. More than twenty committeemen have been discharged. Dozens of members of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers employed on the Southern have been discharged because of their membership.

"Failing in their effort to secure hearings from the local superintendents and then from the general officers of the companies at Washington, the men had no other alternative than to appeal to the organization to which they belong for protection.

"I proposed in this message to Mr. Gannon that if the company and its telegraph employes were unable to agree as to the matters in dispute they desired to present that the telegraphers would agree to submit the matter to arbitration, three arbitrators to be appointed, one each by the company and telegraphers and the third by the two arbiters so selected. This proposition was made for the sole purpose of suggesting a means by which the differences might be adjusted without resorting to a strike with its consequent result. I also agreed to submit the matter to Mr. W. H. Baldwin, Jr., the president of the Long Island Railroad Company, of New York.

"All of these overtures on behalf of the telegraphers were rejected by the company and the officers refused absolutely to treat with their men.

"In the effort to secure a peaceable adjustment of the troubles, the matter was appealed to Mr. Samuel Spencer, president of the Southern Railway, at New York, who was asked to intervene with the view of averting a strike. Mr. Spencer's secretary wired me yesterday that the president of the Southern had been very ill several weeks and was not able to consider such an important matter. This closed the door to the telegraphers, they having exhausted every means in their power to secure hearing by the officials. There was nothing left to do except to strike and this morning I called out all the members of my organization employed on the Southern Railway and the non-members who are in sympathy with us."

Traffic Not Interrupted.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 12.—Nine operators on the Charleston division of the Southern struck to-day in response to orders from President Powell, of the O. R. T. These were at Ridgeville, Fort Motte, Elko, Windsor, Warrenville and Langley, in South Carolina, and at Wrenn's, Mitchell and Gibson, on the Augusta Southern in Georgia.

General Manager Sands said this afternoon that traffic had not been interfered with by the strike. The operators at all important points on the division remained at their keys.

MERIDIAN, MISS., April 12.—The telegraph operators of the Southern and Alabama Great Southern rail ways walked out to-day. They are backed up by all other railroad telegraphers in the city, who refuse to handle Southern and Alabama Southern business, and all trains are tied up except on time card schedules.

MOBILE, ALA., April 12.—The railway telegraphers on the Mobile division of the Southern Railway went out to-day, some fifteen men being concerned. The passenger train due here at 4.35 P. M. was caught half way by the strike and came in two hours late.

Situation at Charlotte.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 12.—Superintendent Rider, of the Charlotte division, makes the following statement:

"Every agent on the Charlotte division is and has been attending to his duties. Every telegraph office has been represented since the strike was ordered. Only three night offices have been closed. Freight and passenger trains are moving on time."

At the local office of the Southern two men went out, and the operators at Gaffney and Greenville, S. C., have quit work.

Between Charlotte and Winston-Salem and Charlotte and Taylorsville no operator has left his post. Between here and Salisbury the operators are also at their posts. At Salisbury four operators are with the strikers.

Whether due to the strike or not, it is a fact that nearly all of the Southern's trains arriving in Charlotte were from three to five hours late.

An Incident at Selma.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 12.—At Selma a wire was cut or grounded to-day. A mob gathered at the Southern's depot there and attempted to take a telegrapher, who is not a striker, from an engine. The telegrapher drew a pistol and drove them off. Then the station was locked so that the Southern Railway's people could not enter. It is charged that this was done by the sympathizers of the strikers.

The Southern is carrying an operator on the engine of every moving train.

Situation Last Night.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., April 12.—General Superintendent J. H. Barrett, of the Southern Railway, says there are to-night only fifty-two telegraphers on strike on the entire Southern system, by divisions as follows: Knoxville, 14; Charlotte, 6; Asheville, 6; Atlanta, 8 or 10; Richmond, 1; Memphis, 1: Birmingham, 8; Macon, 5. Other divisions have none out. He says that the trains are all running on time without interference and that he has 225 telegraphers in reserve to fill vacancies that might occur.

CONFLICTING STATEMENTS.

Railway Officials Claim Only Ten Per Cent. of Men Have Quit—Powell Says the Whole System is Tied-up.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ATLANTA, GA., April 12.—The telegraphers on the Southern Railway system who are members of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers were ordered on strike by President Powell at 11 o'clock this morning. The Southern Railway officials claim to-night that but ten per cent. of the men have quit work, while President Powell says ninety per cent. of them are out. There has been considerable delay to both passenger and freight traffic, but the effect of the walk-out is not yet known to the extent which would warrant assertion as to the exact situation.

It was given out to-night at the office of the Assistant General Superintendent of the Southern, that the places of the seven men who had struck in Atlanta had been filled and that the dispatchers on all divisions centering here are at work. No serious delay, the officials say, has been caused, excepting in the case of the Washington limited, due here at 4 P. M., and a local passenger which left this morning for Richmond. The Washington limited arrived four hours and a half late and the Richmond local was taken up near Cornelia, Ga., by the vestibule which left here for Washington at noon.

Mr. W. V. Powell, president of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, gave out the following statement to-night:

"Reports from every division of the Southern railroad show that the entire system, with the exception of the Louisville branch, is tied up completely so far as freight trains are concerned and that passenger trains are from three to seven hours late and are making very slow time.

"Our members on the Birmingham, Knoxville, Charlotte, Danville, Chattanooga, Asheville, Washington, Columbia, Raleigh and Lynchburg divisions wire that the condition of affairs is very encouraging to the men and that fully 90 per cent. of the telegraphers and dispatchers are on a strike. On the Alabama Great Southern every man struck except one north of Birmingham. I am in position to state positively that more than 90 per cent. of the telegraphers quit work, the claims of the company to the contrary notwithstanding."

HOSIERY YARN SPINNERS.

The Southern Association in Session at Charlotte—New Schedule of Prices Was Adopted

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 12.—The Southern Hosiery Yarn Spinners Association met here to-day. The meeting was presided over by President Charles A. Adamson.

The following schedule of prices were adopted:

5s and 6s, 17 cents; 7s and 8s, 17½ cents; 9s, 17¾ cents; 10s, 18 cents; 11s to 22s, rise ¾c per number; 23s to 40s, rise ½c per number. This makes 20s, 21½ cents; 22s, 22 cents, 26s, 24 cents, and 30s, 26 cents.

The mills have agreed to discontinue the payment of "second freights" and in future will pay freight to either Philadelphia, New York, or Boston, or if shipped direct to customers to whatever city in the East the customer may desire.

The officers of the association stated that it was not the purpose in discussing the schedule of prices to undertake to stimulate prices further, but only to bring the schedule in accordance with the actual markets. The subject of a uniform contract was taken up to be used by the commission men in dealing with the users of the hosiery yarn. The purpose in undertaking to formulate a uniform contract was to get a contract that both sides would have to keep. It was claimed that the purchasers of the yarn did, in many cases, repudiate their order when it is their advantage to do so, but on the contrary they hold the mill to a strict enforcement of the contract when it is to their interest. More was said about the subject of commission men buying, or acting as dealers when they were supposed to be acting as commission men.

GENERAL ROBERTS IS STILL INACTIVE

Hints Thrown Out of a Movement in Progress to Entrap the Boers.

THE FIGHTING AT WEPENER.

Boers Claim to Have the British Surrounded—The Situation at Bloemfontein—Boers Entrenching Near Brandfort.

By Cable to the Morning Star

LONDON, April 13, 4.05 A. M.—In a roundabout way London hears that Lord Roberts, when wiring to the Prince of Wales at Copenhagen congratulations upon his escape from assassination, added two or three hopeful sentences portending an early advance with wide-reaching combinations.

Quiet assurances are now passed around among military men that Lord Roberts is employing his great army effectively and that the adventurous Boer commandoes are likely to be enc eshed, Scraps of news, a detail here and another there, have reached England to-night over comparatively idle cables, but they do not illuminate the situation.

The colonials at Wepener still hold off the Boers. Lord Methuen has worked eastward until he is within eighty miles of Kroonstaf. Boer scouts have gone around Ladysmith and have appeared at Dew Drop and other places on General Buller's flanks and rear. The officers of Buller's irregular horse estimate the Boers in Natal as 18,000, but these figures are probably excessive, 10,000 being regarded here as the outside number.

After General Hart's brigade leaves him General Buller will still have close upon 35,000. It is generally assumed that this brigade is going to join Lord Roberts, but its destination is really unknown.

The Boers have issued a note to Portugal regarding the use by the British of the Beira route for the transportation of troops to Rhodesia and this may, if the Boers act against Portugal, lead Great Britain to land troops at Lorenzo Marques. This possibility has been discussed and is referred to at length in the morning papers to-day.

The work of the Boer peace commissioners has begun. Mr. Fischer has asked Italy to intervene, and the Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs has replied that while he would receive the envoys, the best he could do would be to transmit their proposals to London, thus following the course of the United States.

"Sir Alfred Milner, when replying to a deputation of clergymen in Cape Town yesterday (Thursday), said:

"'Never again' must be the motto of all thinking and humane men, but not from lust of conquest or a desire to trample on the gallant, if misguided. There must be no compromise or patchwork in the settlement, and no opportunity for misunderstanding intrigue, the revival of impossible ambitions, or the accumulation of enormous armament.

"The British will no longer tolerate dissimilar and antagonistic political systems in a country which nature and history have declared to be one."

In these absolute utterances of Sir Alfred Milner he speaks for the imperial government.

It is calculated that Lord Roberts has 214,000 effective men, with 24,000 afloat or under orders. The War Office has instructed officers not to take any more expanding bullets to Africa for revolvers.

Hildyard Steyn, brother of President Steyn, during the course of an interview at Bloemfontein said:

"The original war plan of the Boers was to overrun all Cape Colony, but on becoming involved in the seiges of Kimberley and Ladysmith the burghers found the designed spoiled. To this I attribute the Boer failure to conquer the British. I expect the war to last until Christmas."

Boers' Activity.

BLOEMFONTEIN, April 11.—According to information received here the Boer activity eastward of the railroad and in proximity to the border is largely due to the fact that Presidents Kruger and Steyn have found they are unable to keep their forces together in inactivity, the burghers declaring they are unwilling to remain with their commands unless actively employed, as they are convinced the British game is a waiting one. It is believed the Boer movement was originally designed to oblige Lord Roberts to weaken his force at Bloemfontein in order to protect the railroad, when the Boers would have attempted to recapture the capital. But the burghers are evidently ignorant of the enormous forces Lord Roberts has at his disposal.

Advices from Kaar siding say the Boers are busily entrenching their position east of Brandfort, running parallel with the railroad, while still strongly holding the Waterval drift waterworks.

British Retiring.

PRETORIA, April 11.—A heavy cannonade was heard this morning in the direction of Bultfontein, situated midway between Windburg and Bashow, in the Orange Free State, and north of Brandfort.

April 12.—Advices from the Boer headquarters in Natal say that after a heavy bombardment the British are retiring in the direction of Ladysmith and the Federals are going to their old positions.

Advices from Wepener, where a British force is surrounded, say the battle continues favorable to the Federals. About 1500 British troops are said to be there.

LIFE IMPRISONMENT.

Two of the Murderers of Cassie Boon Convicted and Sentenced.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 12.—Joseph and Harvey Jackson, two brothers, accused of killing and burning Cassie Boon, in Chesterfield county, this State, were found guilty of murder, with recommendation to mercy. Judge Klogh sentenced the two prisoners to life imprisonment in the State penitentiary.

BUILDING COLLAPSED.

A Four-story Structure at Pittsburg, Pa. Three Persons Killed and a Number of Others Injured.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PITTSBURG, PA., April 12.—Without warning and with a rush and a roar, the four-story brick building at the corner of Second avenue and Wood street collapsed to-day, burying in its ruins a number of people, three of whom were taken out dead, six were badly hurt and several others slightly injured.

The building was occupied by the Armstrong-McKelvy Oil Company. It was being remodelled by contractors McGovern and Lyttle, who were converting the lower floor of the corner store and the next door into one large room, which was to have been occupied by the lead company. About forty-eight feet of the middle partition had been removed and steel girders, supported by heavy iron posts, were in place, and the finishing touches were being put on the remodelling work.

Stock was being transferred among the rooms and apparently the heavy weight of the lead and oils was centralized about the middle of the structure. The second floor broke through, carrying the two floors above, making a breach from top to bottom through the center of the building.

THE STRIKE ON THE SOUTHERN.

Traffic on the Alabama Division Pretty Thoroughly Tied Up.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BIRMINGHAM, April 12.—Although the local officials of the Alabama Great Southern and the Southern railways claim that little inconvenience has been caused by the telegraphers' strike, the Alabama Great Southern, between this city and Chattanooga, has been pretty thoroughly tied up since the order was issued.

The south-bound passenger train, due here at 11.45, had not reached here at a late hour this afternoon, and many freights are laid out.

A special train with a dozen operators aboard left the city at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and the officials claim that they will have everything in working order in a few hours.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ROME, GA., April 12.—Tom Shepperd, colored, postmaster at Chubbeetown, a prosperous negro village in this county, was arrested to-day by Inspector Barry and taken to Dalton for commitment trial. He is about $900 short in his postal accounts, mainly through money orders sent by him to firms all over the country when he had no money to liquidate the same.

Is It Satisfactory?

That's the question that goes with every purchase here. If it's not satisfactory, bring it back to-day—to-morrow—next week—and get your money. It is this absolute assurance of fair dealing that retains our trade. Our customers know that "money back" is not a cry set up to deceive the unwary into buying, followed by all sorts of undue excuses and quibblings to avoid returning money on displeasing purchases. One of our maxims reads: "For you to remain dissatisfied is to make us more dissatisfied." It isn't to-day's trade we're depending on—it's to-morrow's—next week's—next month's—next year's! We want you to be so well pleased with your treatment here and with what you buy here, that you'll come again and again. And we will remark right now that our efforts to please have been so uniformly successful that calls for "money back" are rarely made. But it's here just the same, for any and all demands that may be made for purchases returned as undesirable.
